

SCRATCHBOARD ANIMALS

Stay away from zebras and pandas

Practice “light” sketching your animal in your sketchbook

Lightly draw guidelines on your scratchboard

The animal should fill the space. (no tiny animals for a large space)

Practice scratching on practice board 2x2

When comfortable start scratching on your large board.

Be mindful of the patterns and movement your animal has in fur, scales, feathers, etc.

Grading Criteria

- 5. Appropriate use of contrast
- 5. Fur, scales, feathers, etc. show movement
- 5. Animal fills the space allotted.
- 5. clean scratchboard, no holes, eraser marks, or pencil showing.

Total points 20

